Comment: It is sad that this council holds beliefs more in line with dark age mythology than current science. If your non-informed decision is to ban Cannabis businesses in Charlotte, you should also be pulling the sale of liquor, which is a much more dangerous drug. close down those heart attack fast poison shops lining Lansing Rd., ban the sale of deadly tobacco products and sugary drinks.

Do you really think that cannabis business will turn Charlotte into a haze of reefer madness if so you all need to go and let those folks who are ready for the 21st century take control for the people?
