Vision 2025—Update. A series of focus group meetings took place during the week of July 8 during which area residents were invited to provide input about issues related to the environment, the economy, health and wellness, arts and culture, basic needs, education and neighborhoods and community. The Vision 2025 steering committee is now seeking to expand on this input by inviting Charlotte-area residents to complete a brief online survey. The survey can be accessed from a smart phone by scanning the QR code at right. It can be completed as well from a browser by visiting <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/CharlotteVision2025>.

City Council Candidates. The following residents have qualified to be on the November 5 ballot for City Council: Yvonne Ridge — Mayor; Michael Armitage — District 1 Council Member; Tamra Weisenborn — District 2 Council Member (4-year term); Daniel Christian — District 2 Council Member (2-year partial term); Branden Dyer and Zachary Story — At-Large Council Member. To qualify for the ballot, candidates had to obtain at least 50 valid signatures from electors. If a candidate is representing either District 1 or District 2, those electors must be residents of the district. You must be registered to vote in the City to participate in selecting the Mayor and City Council Members. Contact the City Clerk's Office for more information about voting by mail and voter registration.
