Blight, Weeds, or Junk Vehicles Properties must be kept in good repair, including exterior siding and roofs, and free of junk/debris. Additionally, city code states that vehicles must be registered and operable.

Grass and vegetation be maintained so as not to exceed 10 inches in height. A code enforcement inspector will take action on properties that are not maintained. They may also have weeds/grass cut at the property owner's expense. Please keep shrubs and trees trimmed back at corners to prevent traffic hazards, and away from sidewalks for pedestrian safety. Do not put lawn clippings or leaves in the road, alley, or gutters since they may clog storm drains, which can be costly to clear out.

If you see a property in your neighborhood in need of maintenance, please call 517-543-8837, ccummings@charlottemi.org, or report it online at www.charlottemi.org/contact-us/.

Individuals in need of assistance can find resources on our website at www.charlottemi.org/assistance-programs-available/

Rave Alerts—Utility Billing. The City of Charlotte uses Rave alerts to keep residents, business owners, everyone informed! Get notified with important information about what is happening in the community such as street closures, water system work, or emergencies that may affect you. We also use the system to post other city information. Starting in July, we expanded the service options to include targeted text and email messaging for quarterly utility billing. We will send out a notice to registered users when we send out the bills for their cycle area. This alert will notify them the bill has been mailed and provide other billing related information. There are several ways to register: Text CHARLOTTE to 67283; Download the Smart911 app; or Register for a free and secure safety profile online at Smart911.com.

A copy of the survey results presentation and more information is available online at: www.charlottemi.org/ARPA

NEWS FROM CITY HALL

Property Maintenance Code. The City Council hold a public hearing on Monday, August 1st at 7 pm to hear feedback on proposed amendments to the property maintenance code. The property maintenance code regulates the standards for maintaining residential and commercial properties. The current code edition is from 2006. City Council is considering adoption of the 2021 edition to ensure standards are up-to-date and follow current best practices. City Council held a first reading on July 18th and is seeking public input prior to considering adoption on August 1st.

Medical Marijuana Caregivers. The City Council hold a public hearing on Monday, August 1st at 7 pm to hear feedback on proposed regulations for medical marijuana caregivers. Medical marijuana caregivers are allowed by-right under State law. Recent state supreme court rulings have upheld certain regulations are permissible to ensure the operations are conducted in accordance with the state law and rules. The City Council is considering addition of these regulations to minimize impacts to residential neighborhoods. Similar to other home occupations, these standards would limit how much of a residential home could be utilized for this use, ensure safeguards are in-place to minimize offsite effects such as odors and noise, and provide a mechanism for permitting. City Council held a first reading on July 5th and is seeking public input prior to considering adoption on August 1st.

Home Occupations. The Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on Tuesday, August 9th at 7 pm to hear feedback on proposed amendments to the city's home occupations ordinance. The term home occupation primarily means a small business based at a residence.

Current regulations have not been updated in many years, and are not reflective of the diversity of economic opportunity presented by the modern, 21st Century economy. In simplest terms, the existing ordinance has a short and outdated list of allowed home occupations, and a short list of prohibited occupations. Anything else is presumed to be prohibited unless special permission is granted by the Planning Commission in the form of a Conditional Use approval.

After reviewing a range of newer ordinances adopted by other communities, the Planning Commission determined that a better approach is one relying on a set of standards for home occupations that protect neighbors and neighborhoods from potentially negative effects and nuisances resulting from near-by home occupations. This approach presumes that all legal economic activity that can be conducted from an individual residence is permitted, as long as it does not create off-site problems such as increased traffic and parking, noise, dust, smoke, vibration or unsightliness.

The City Council has approved the first reading of the new ordinance and set a public hearing before the Planning Commission for August 9. The hearing will be at City Hall in the Council Chambers at 7 p.m. At that time, anyone who would like to comment on the issue will be heard. Following the hearing, the Planning Commission will make a recommendation to the City Council on whether the ordinance should be permanently adopted. Questions regarding home occupations ordinance should be directed to Bryan Myrkle, Community Development Director, (517) 543-8853 or bmyrkle@charlottemi.org.

A copy of each of the proposed ordinances can be reviewed online at www.charlottemi.org/city-code/proposed-ordinances/ or in-person at City Hall, Clerk's Office, 111 E Lawrence Ave.

Persons with disabilities who require assistance in order to participate in the public meeting should contact the City at the earliest opportunity by emailing the City Clerk at clerk@charlottemi.org or by calling (517) 543-2750.

Michiganders in crisis now have an easy-to-remember three-digit number to call for help – 988. Michigan has joined the nation in transitioning to the 988-dialing code, which will operate through the existing National Suicide Prevention Lifeline’s network of more than 200 locally operated and funded crisis centers across the country.

In 2020, Congress designated the new 988 dialing code to operate through the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline. This action expands the existing Lifeline beyond people who are feeling suicidal to all individuals experiencing a behavioral health crisis, including suicidal thoughts or substance abuse issues. Trained counselors will be available 24/7 to field calls. They will listen to the caller’s problems, assess their needs and provide support by connecting them with resources, and alert local emergency crisis teams, if necessary.

Anyone with these concerns can call:

- Mental health-related distress.
- Thoughts of suicide.
- Substance use crisis.
- Emotional distress.
- There are specialized services available for veterans, LGBTQ individuals and other groups.
- People who are worried about a loved one who may need support also can call.

The 988-dialing code does not replace the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (800-273-TALK (8255)) or other locally operated crisis lines. Instead, it serves as a universal entry point to connect individuals in need to trained crisis counselors who can help. MDHHS is working to ensure a solid infrastructure is built through coordination with 911 and other crisis service providers as the 988-dialing code launches.

Prior to the development of 988, the Michigan Crisis and Access Line (MiCAL) was funded by the Michigan Legislature in December 2018. MDHHS was charged with the development of MiCAL, which is currently operating in Oakland County and the Upper Peninsula, and with 988 implementation.

MiCAL is built on the SAMHSA’s National Guidelines for Behavioral Health Crisis Care which is also the foundation for 988. In Michigan, MiCAL is responsible for answering 988 calls in all areas of Michigan. In Macomb and Kent counties, Macomb County Community Mental Health and Network 180 will answer 988 calls with MiCAL providing back-up call coverage.

For more information, visit 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline and Michigan Crisis & Access Line.

Charlotte Adopts New Sign Ordinance. The City of Charlotte recently adopted new regulations for signs in the City. It addresses signs for all zoning districts and uses, including residential, commercial and industrial. The new regulations improve formatting and layout of the text to help users find information more easily. It allows for more modern, digital signage; and brings local regulations in-line with a U.S. Supreme Court decision related to content-neutral regulations. The new regulations improve formatting and layout of the text to help users find information more easily. It allows for more modern, digital signage; and brings local regulations in-line with a U.S. Supreme Court decision related to content-neutral regulations. Among the other updates, temporary signage in residential districts was changed to permit a temporary sign for not more than 180 consecutive days. This is a change from the current regulations which allow longer or shorter times based on the sign's content.

The program offers up to $20,000 in no interest, no payment loan assistance to repair and improve program participant's home.
